A recent decision is to the ef fect that a pedestrian crossing a highway is not bound to be constantly on the lookout for auto cars, but that the chauffeurs are, on the contrary, bound to look out for the pedestrians, and if any accident results the burden of the defense is upon the chauffeur.

A queer circumstance is noted in the apparent translation of nearly the whole of the great families of Dwight and Lathrop or Lothrop from England to this country. A century ago the Dwights and Lathrops and Lothrops were quite numerous and prominent in England, but now there are very few to be found anywhere, while Dwights and Lathrops and Lothrops are every where in this country.

Just as the copartnership between Hearst and Tammany seemed to b perfected into complete harmony Hearst threw a bombshell into the quiet camp by the rejection of two of Tammany's nominees for judicial places.
